

IS TIRED OF BEING "MADE THE GOAT"

Sterling Birmingham Welcomes Investigation of His Part in $50,000 Loan.

ANOTHER MAN IN CASE IS SENT TO THE TOMBS

Attitude of District Attorney's Office Seems to Be in Favor of Windsor Company.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Sterling Birmingham, the dismissed loan clerk of the Windsor Trust company, said today, through his counsel, that he was "tired of being made the goat." An investigation was what he would most welcome; it would give him the chance to show that throughout his connection with the loan of $50,000 to M. M. Joyce, a broker for F. Augustus Heinze, he acted under orders from his superiors.

The grand jury is anxious to determine this point, as it was on the affidavit of President Young that Birmingham was today arraigned in police court, charged with a misdemeanor in accepting $250 as a fee for his services in pushing the loan through.

Three other men, who are now under indictment, appeared before Judge Mulqueen today—Charles Katz, president of the Eastern Banking company; A. D. S. Adams of Boston; and Walter L. Clark, a note broker.

In Clark's case, the records of the court of general sessions, which show that he has been previously indicted for forgery and has done time in Elgin, were produced before the grand jury.

Adams' bail was set at $12,000—more than he could find, and he was sent to the Tombs. Katz had to furnish $25,000, and Clark's bail of $12,000 was continued. At request of counsel pleading in all three cases was postponed until next Tuesday.

The present attitude of the district attorney's office is that nothing criminal has been proved against the trust company or its officers.

INNES BAND AT SALT LAKE

NATHAN J. LANG, 72 years of age, died Friday morning at his home, 3429 Locust street, after a long sickness. Mr. Lang came to Utah many years ago from Pennsylvania. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon from the Forest Dale chapel at 3 o'clock.

THOMAS WATSON and Mrs. Charles Larson arrived here Friday morning from their home in Minneapolis to attend the funeral of their father, Richard S. Watson, which took place Friday afternoon from the Masonic temple, with interment at Mt. Olivet.

COLONEL GEORGE B. SQUIRES, commissioner of insurance for Utah, has received a telegram from St. Louis, Mo., stating that the Great American Life and the International Life Insurance companies of Missouri have consolidated. The message also states that the consolidated company is to be known as the American Life Insurance company.

According to official notice received Friday morning from the citizens' executive committee for the G. A. R. at Atlantic City, Colonel P. M. Sterrett, executive director for the forty-third national encampment here, has been selected executive director for the forty-fourth national encampment at Atlantic City. The encampment at Atlantic City will be the fifth of which Colonel Sterrett has had charge.

Matters connected with the recent encampment are being rapidly put into shape and Colonel Sterrett expects to have here by the end of next week for a trip to Honolulu. He will return from there to St. Louis for a short visit, after which he will go to Atlantic City about October 15 to take charge of matters there.

In Critical Condition.
Rep. B. Heywood, former United States marshal for Utah and one of the proprietors of the Cullen hotel, is reported as having stood the operation at St. Mark's hospital quite well and rallied from the shock and anesthesia. During the first twenty-four hours Mr. Heywood, under stimulation, showed signs of recovery. This Saturday morning his condition was not as favorable as hoped for.

Dance at the Post.
The officers at Fort Douglas were hosts Friday night at a dancing party, which was given on the west front of the officers' quarters. Besides the residents at the post, a number of city people were present.

started again. In the second start McCarthy sprinted from the track and rode his wheel to the front and on the turn rode very recklessly, almost striking Hume's wheel in front from the lap and coming in ahead. In the final they all rode a fierce race, McCormick, Wright, Dieffenbacher and McCarthy pushing in the lead. The first match will be held with Fort Douglas in a series of races on September 25 and 30 yards.

Sports Still Hopeful.
A NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20.—What several weeks ago appeared to be an insuperable effort toward the re-establishment of horse racing in Louisiana has now been crystallized into an organized movement to bring the question of race track betting up before the legislature in the coming spring. Both the city park and the Fairgrounds race tracks here are being kept in condition.

American Boats Selected.
